

SENATOR MAHONEY: I can not speak for those.

SENATOR WARNER: They were not to you knowledge included?

PRESIDENT: Senator Kelly.

SENATOR KELLY: Mr. President, I would speak against the Mahoney motion on the basis that what in the dickens is the big hurry? We spend half a year down here and we spend half of the other half of the year still at legislative business in some fashion or other. I don't see any reason to make the Governor's staff work all night and make us sweat as to whether or not our decisions are. I think that we can take the deliberation time. Meet today and get what we can off Final Reading and take our veto a override day a week later.

PRESIDENT: Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: May I ask Senator Kelly a question? Senator Kelly without using the word rush or hurry even in your thinking I want to ask you this question. I want you to consider it. If we are able to read all of the bills that we have on Final Reading today and tomorrow and the Governor's staff will have time to get the budget bills back to us tomorrow, what need is there to delay?

PRESIDENT: OK, Senator Nore....

SENATOR KELLY: I want to respond. Easily and obviously we can make haste or a case that there is no need to delay because we have a position before the body and I want to answer the question with a question whats the damned hurry?

PRESIDENT: Senator Nore, and then Senator Barnett.

SENATOR NORE: Mr. Chairman, and members, lets not forget that we are not carrying out our responsibilities to our constituents and they are not going to be able to let us know how we even want to veto or override, what veto we want to override or what we don't want too. I will be a rushed affair. It will be complete confusion and if you want to be responsible for it that is alright with me. I wouldn't want to be running for office this next time from here if I voted for this. Because there is going to be trouble.

PRESIDENT: Senator Barnett.

SENATOR BARNETT: Senator Mahoney, would you yield to a question? Senator Mahoney could we take this up after we see how much final reading we can done in a little..

SENATOR MAHONEY: No, I'll tell you what Senator Barnett, in the spirit of cooperation with the Governor, I think that in fairness we ought to answer it and I'm not....this is no hear breaker with me. We can either vote up or down and I think that we all understand it.

SENATOR BARNETT: OK, I'll call for the question then.
